

Junnie Lannes

ILLUSTRATOR COMIC ARTIST

SUMMARY

Hi there! My name's Junnie, and I consider myself to be an optimistic, cheerful, and friendly person with a passion for art in nearly all its forms. Having been a freelance illustrator and comic artist for nearly seven years, I've developed a unique perspective that aids both my creative process, and my day to day responsibilities. Check out my info below!

EDUCATION

2015 - 2017

Columbus College of Art and Design

Illustration Major

Two Years towards Bachelor Degree

2011 - 2015

Minerva High School

High School Diploma

EXPERIENCE

2022-Present

Columbus Metropolitan Library

Customer Service Specialist

Experience in organization, designing displays, creating and leading various children's programming, assisting in research, and connecting customers with desired literature (primarily comics.)

June 2022 - July 2022

Art Mobile

Summer Art Lesson Instructor

Experience in leading a classroom environment, organizing materials and work stations, explaining artistic concepts in age appropriate ways, and blending fun with education.

CONTACT

✉ Erosoxide@gmail.com

➡ Erosoxides.wixsite.com/portfolio

📷 @ErosOxide

SKILLS

Illustration and Narrative Art

Proficiency in Photoshop

Proficiency in Microsoft Office

Communication and Empathy

Teaching and Instructing

Visual Direction and Organization

PERSONAL PROJECTS

Tinfoil

2023 Comic

Independently published comic, featuring a collection of introspective short stories focusing on technology and horror.

Handprint

2023 comic

Independently published comic, focusing on a brief conversation between characters, discussing artistic inspiration and burnout.